MOST DIFFICULT MOMENT? — Max Conrad, decked out with flowers and a laurel wreath, gets a welcoming kiss from Italian movie starlet Valeria Fabrizio on his arrival at Rome airport Friday. It was the 50th trans-Atlantic crossing in a light plane and he did it nonstop from Chicago in 34 hours and three minutes. He said there was nothing particularly difficult about the flight and added "I think the most difficult moment comes now," as newsmen and photographers gathered around to record the welcoming ceremony.

7 Found Dead at Lancaster Farm

LANCASTER, Ohio (AP)—The bodies of seven persons were found at a farm house about eight miles northeast of here today, and authorities said all the deaths appeared due to murder and suicide. A man and four children were found in a locked automobile parked beside the house. Apparently

New Auditor Is Sworn In; Names Staff

LISBON — Kenneth Bell of Wellsville, Columbiana County's new auditor, was sworn in at noon Friday by Probate Judge Louis Tobin.

He will assume the office officially Monday morning. He succeeds I. H. Vorndran who has been employed in the auditor's office for almost 33 years, the last 16 as auditor.

Vorndran said he has no particular plans for the future.

Bell named 12 new workers, retained four now working in the auditor's office, and appointed three to work in the appraisal department on the new real estate appraisal.

He retained Mrs. Helen Cavanaugh of Lisbon as bookkeeper; Virginia Roney of East Liverpool, deputy in charge of disposition of funds; Wilbur W. Cornell of Lisbon, transfer clerk in the tax map department; and Wanda Wilson of Salem, clerk.

New appointees are George Konnerth of Salem, chief deputy auditor; Dan McKeever of East Liverpool, deputy auditor; Harry L. Gosney of Columbiana, sealer of weights and measures; Bernard Freeman of Leetonia, deputy in charge of personal property tax.

John Graham of Wellsville, deputy in charge of appraisal; Elmer R. Winters of East Liverpool, deputy; Amelia Serago and Katharine Harrold, Lisbon; Linda Hawk of East Palestine; Pauline Berman and Janet Richardson of East Liverpool and Sally Russell of Salineville, clerks.

Mrs. Dale Kodrich of Lisbon, Mrs. Virginia Iden of Kensington and Ma Mae Elsass of East Palestine were appointed to the appraisal department.

Mrs. Geneva Hult of Lisbon, one of the employees who will be released, has been working in the auditor's office for over 33 years.

LISBON — At a hearing in Common Pleas Court Friday afternoon, Judge Joel H. Sharp continued the East Liverpool police cases pending the decision of Court of Appeals on a motion to quash the cases.

The hearing was attended by Prosecutor G. William Brokaw and defense attorney Sam Fekett of Youngstown. The defense attorneys had asked that the indictments be dismissed because the case had not been heard during three sessions of court.

The common Pleas Court ruled against the defendants, but the motion was taken to the higher court which heard arguments Tuesday and took the cases under advisement.

Akron Robber Is Captured by Bellaire Police

Patrolman Foiled Would-Be Holdup Of Bank In Ohio

BELLAIRE, Ohio (AP)—A $50-a-week novelty salesman, wounded and captured by a policeman as he fled with loot from a bank holdup here, used techniques similar to the robber of a Harrison County bank three years ago, the FBI said today.

William W. Hinkle, 33, of Akron, the bone in his right arm shattered by the policeman's bullet, was recuperating in Bellaire City Hospital after his daring holdup attempt Friday.

Hinkle got only 50 feet from the bank door when Patrolman Lawrence Marinelli dashed out of police headquarters directly across the street and collared him.

Hinkle put up a struggle and pulled a .32 caliber revolver. But the officer—the only patrolman on duty in this Ohio River City at the time—fired two shots from his own gun, one into the air and the other into Hinkle's right arm.

Hinkle dropped the loot—$2,607 in cash and $700 in checks which he carried in a shopping bag as he walked from the Union Savings Bank.

Hitchhiked to Bellaire. Hinkle told police he hitchhiked to Bellaire. But officers found car keys in his pocket. After learning that Hinkle's car was at home, police tried to match up the keys with all cars on city streets.

Police speculated that if the getaway car cannot be found in the city, it would indicate that Hinkle had a cohort in the robbery—who presumably drove off after Hinkle was caught.

FBI men, who poured into Bellaire after the robbery, also did some speculating. One agent said there was a possibility that Frank Lawrence Spreng, one of the FBI's 10 most wanted criminals, may have worked with Hinkle.

Spreng, 29, sought for the robbery of a Hamilton, Ohio, bank last Monday, also comes from Akron. But beyond that, there was no definite link between the two men.

Another FBI agent speculated on a possible tie-up between Friday's robbery and one at a bank in Hopedale, in adjacent Harrison County, in 1956.

Wore Sunglasses. The Hopedale robber wore green sunglasses, just as Hinkle did, the agent pointed out, and the general description of the Hopedale man matches closely with Hinkle.

The agent also compared the way the robber of the Hopedale bank walked away—not ran—from the holdup, just as Hinkle did.

The FBI man said he plans to bring the Hopedale bank cashier to Bellaire to try to identify Hinkle.

Authorities plan to move Hinkle to Steubenville as soon as doctors permit. Belmont County authorities said he will be charged with armed robbery, and the FBI said federal charges also will be brought against him.

Police Chief Edward R. Good gave this account of the holdup: Hinkle walked up to tell Elmer Kratz, just before the bank closed at 4:30 p. m., and showed a gun over the counter railing. Kratz laughed, thinking it was a joke, and began walking away.

Hinkle then went around the counter and herded four bookkeepers and five tellers into the vault and shut the door. Inside the vault, the employees pushed an alarm button which did two things:

It tipped off police, and it automatically locked four of five cash drawers behind the tellers' cages. The fifth cash drawer, which was not equipped to lock when the alarm sounded, was the one from which Hinkle gathered his loot.

There were no customers in the bank at the time.

The bank employees in the vault were in no danger of asphyxiating. The vault had a ventilating system and could be opened from the inside.

Ohio Education Board to View DiSalle Budget

Governor Set Aside $427,900,000 for Public Education

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Last on a list of things Supt. E. E. Holt will take up with the State Board of Education Monday is an analysis of the governor's budget recommendations for the education department.

But while the item is last on the list, it's getting first consideration from Holt and his staff and probably will from the state board, too.

In his budget message Tuesday evening, Gov. Michael V. DiSalle said his total recommended amount for public education—including operation of the state education department—is $427,900,000 for the two-year period which begins in July.

That's $53,200,000 more than is being spent during the two-year period which runs out June 30.

But DiSalle added that he is "indeed disturbed by the present character of the (school) foundation program." While it's supposed to give aid to needy districts, DiSalle went on, but the state seems to be granting very substantial sums of money to every school district, irrespective of the wealth of the community.

"Aid to public schools in essence now takes nearly all of the revenue produced by the sales tax," the governor said, adding: "We must give thought to returning a portion of the burden to the school districts, along with the

Fred Stone Dies at 85 In Hollywood

NORTH HOLLYWOOD, Calif. (AP)—Fred Stone, whose nimble Song and dance acts and amazing acrobatics delighted musical comedy audiences for decades, is dead at 85.

The veteran of 50 years on stage and screen died Friday at his home from a complication of ailments. A heart attack about two years ago was soon followed by total blindness.

Stone's sight had been failing for five or six years, the delayed effect of injuries suffered in a 1927 plane crash.

He was flying solo between his Connecticut farm and rehearsals for a Broadway show when he crashed. Both legs were broken, an ankle crushed, his jaw broken. His friend, Will Rogers, flew from Hollywood to replace him in the show, "Three Cheers."

A barber's son, born in almont, Colo., Fred started as a circus acrobat and worked in medicine and minstrel shows before teaming up with Dave Montgomery in 1935 to form a song and dance act.

Rev. Barrett, Episcopal Rector 14 Years, Dies

The Rev. Harry A. Barrett of 864 Franklin St., retired rector of the Church of Our Saviour, died of a heart ailment Friday at 11:45 a. m. in Salem City Hospital. He was 80.

He had been in failing health for the past year and entered the hospital a week ago.

Born at Pittsford, Vt., Sept. 21, 1878, he was the son of Rev. George A. and Mary Barker Barrett. He was graduated from Union College in Schenectady, N.Y., in 1901.

He came to Salem from Westport, Conn., in 1943 to become rector of the Episcopal Church of Our Saviour. He retired in November of 1957 and became pastor emeritus. He was a member of the Rotary Club.

Rev. Barrett's wife, the former Bladina Peck, died Feb. 19, 1955, and surviving are one daughter, Miss Louise M. Barrett, at home;

4 Hurt In Auto Accident Here

Mrs. Roland Smith, Son Are Critical

Four persons were injured, two seriously, in a collision of two cars on N. Ellsworth Ave., 200 feet north of its intersection with 12th St., at 7:07 p. m. Friday, police reported today.

Injured were Mrs. Roland Smith, 29, of RD 4, Salem, her two children, David, 8, and Susan, 7, and Richard Hippley, 18, of the Franklin Road.

Police said Mrs. Smith was traveling south on Ellsworth Ave. when her car skidded into the path of Hippley's north bound car, striking it broadside.

Mrs. Smith is in poor condition in the Central Clinic with internal injuries, fractured ribs and a fractured collar bone.

David is in serious condition in Youngstown's South Side Hospital with head injuries, a fractured left arm and right leg and lacerations of the scalp, lip and chin.

Susan is in fair condition in the Clinic with a fractured right collar bone.

Hippley sustained lacerations of the chin and abrasions of the right knee. He is in fairly good condition in the Clinic.

Mexican Senator Shot, Killed by Assassin

MEXICO CITY (AP)—A woman described by an official as mentally disturbed shot a senator to death Friday in his Senate building office.

Mrs. Emma Martinez Cruz, 43, opened the door of Sen. Rafael Altamirano Herrera's office and fired into his back. He slumped to the floor with a .25 caliber bullet near his heart.

The woman fled down a corridor of the building with the gun still in her hand. She was disarmed by a Senate usher and taken to a police station.

Telescope Searches For U. S. Pioneer IV

JODRELL BANK, England (AP)—The Jodrell Bank radio telescope kept searching today for the U.S. Pioneer IV moon rocket without success.

Prof. Bernard Lovell, who is in charge of the world's most powerful telescope, said it now could be "safely assumed" the rocket's batteries gave out a few hours after the telescope lost contact at 8 a. m. (EST) Friday.

LISBON BOARD TO MEET

LISBON — The letting of a contract to build six additional classrooms at Lincoln School and the 1959-1960 school calendar will be the main items of discussion when the Village School Board meets Tuesday evening, Supt. Loren Early reports.

Bids for the new rooms will be opened Monday noon, and the board will let the contract as soon as possible. It is hoped that the rooms will be in use next September.

Soviet Leader May 'Pressure' West Nations

East German Chief Hints Conference Between East Allies

Leipzig, East Germany (AP)—Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev has dropped a hint that he may invite Poland and Czechoslovakia to join the Soviet Union in signing a peace treaty with East Germany.

Blowing hot and cold, the ebullient Soviet leader let leak the suggestion that this may be his maneuver in his pressure campaign against the West.

The Soviets are demanding an all-German treaty that would, in effect, still leave two Germans to counter Western proposals for reunification of the country.

Bouncing around exuding confidence since arriving here on Wednesday, Khrushchev has given the impression that he feels he is making headway in the war of nerves on Germany—and particularly Berlin.

Today he leaves for East Berlin with indications he may be about to set another diplomatic time-bomb.

East German Communist Premier Otto Grotewohl said Friday night that it was "very possible" Polish Communist Boss Wladyslaw Gomulka and Czech President and party boss Antonin Novotny would confer with Khrushchev in Berlin.

This morning, however, Grotewohl's press chief Kurt Bleha said he had no information to give.

Khrushchev is due to address a labor conference in Leipzig this afternoon and leave by train this evening for East Berlin.

There was speculation that Khrushchev would remain in Berlin over the weekend, especially if Gomulka and Novotny show up.

One Person Is Injured In Road Mishap

One person was slightly injured and three were arrested early today and Friday by state highway patrolmen in three traffic mishaps in the area.

William A. Frazier, 17, of Newton Falls received lacerations about the face when his car struck another auto operated by David L. Dickinson, 18, of Warren, on Rt. 18, near Lake Milton, at 12:45 a. m. today.

He was treated by a family physician and cited by patrolmen for unsafe operation.

William Ferguson, 48, of Youngstown was arrested for reckless operation after his car sheared a utility pole and struck a parked car on Rt. 164, two miles north of Lisbon, at 5:30 a. m. today.

Patrolmen said Ferguson was traveling at a high rate of speed. After his car struck the pole, it continued 200 feet off the highway to crash into the vehicle owned by William Coalmer of RD 2, Leetonia.

Utility crews were still working at 9:30 this morning to restore power to residents in that area.

No one was hurt in a school bus mishap on Rt. 14, near the Pennsylvania state line, Friday at 3:45 p. m.

Patrolmen said Fred Landsberger, 37, of RD 1, East Palestine, backed the bus into a French Renault driven by George Churchill, 25, of Youngstown.

Churchin told patrolmen he blew his horn but Landsberger did not hear it or see the small car.

The bus was transporting 17 children from Our Lady of Lourdes Parochial School in East Palestine.

Churchin was cited for having fictitious plates.

Wild Storm Hits Midwest States

By The Associated Press
A wild March snow storm tapered off and whipped through the Northeast today after leaving the upper Midwest straight-jacketed in the worst late winter weather pounding in a decade.

Numerous highways remained blocked in snow-choked sections of Iowa, Minnesota, Wisconsin and Michigan as high winds whipped snowfalls of up to 22 inches into 20-foot drifts.

Deaths blamed on the storm numbered 33—12 in Iowa, 10 in Indiana, 6 in Wisconsin, 2 in Michigan, 2 in New York and 1 in Pennsylvania. The prespring dose of winter claimed its victims through snow shoveling heart attacks, traffic accidents and asphyxiation.

Winds gusting up to 50 miles an hour swept the heavy snow area as the storm moved northeastward into Canada.

Two 30-foot radio towers were downed by 45 m.p.h. winds in Bowling Green, Ohio, and a house trailer was overturned while being towed on a highway near Lancaster, Ohio.

Temperatures took a sharp skid east of the Mississippi River, and early morning readings were up to 20 degrees colder than a day earlier.

Snowfall tapered off to flurries in most of the Northeast, although locally heavy flurries deposited a fresh blanket near the lower Great Lakes.

In New England, the precipitation came as heavy rain in mild 50-degree temperatures. A rainfall of 2.17 inches soaked Portland, Maine, halting air traffic and har-

Medicine Owes Debt To William Harvey

Until 1628, when William Harvey published his famous paper written in Latin, the way in which the blood circulated in the body was wrongly interpreted by physicians everywhere.

William Harvey made careful studies of anatomy in animals and human beings and came to the conclusion that the previous ideas regarding circulation were incorrect. He carried out studies on animals which conclusively proved the relations between the heart and the lungs and the differences between arteries and veins.

FOR THE FIRST TIME the functions of the different chambers of the heart and of the heart valves were understood, Harvey described just what happened when the heart contracted and relaxed.

To this great investigator we really owe our knowledge of how the blood is pumped out of the heart to the lungs (where it is given oxygen), and how the blood flows back to the heart and out again to the arteries reaching to all parts of the body. After passing through the bed of fine blood vessels, called capillaries, the blood is then returned to the heart through the veins.

Harvey, of course, did not know everything that we know now about circulation, such as the chemical exchange of oxygen and carbon dioxide. His studies, however, revolutionized medical ideas. They had far-reaching effects, not only for the treatment of all heart conditions and diseases of circulation, but also in all other fields of medical research.

THE VIEWS advanced by Harvey did not receive acceptance at once. Many of the leading scholars of the day opposed them violently, always citing tradition as the principal reason for their opposition.

The weight of opinion gradually cam over to his side and his studies and experiments are now considered to be one of the great classics of medical progress.

Without such knowledge we should not have come as far as we have—and certainly would be in no position to make further advances in the study of diseases of the heart and circulation.

Ohio Assembly Given a Free Choice

We don't know whether Gov. DiSalle can make his point or not, but we give him credit for trying to make the General Assembly stick to reality in comments on the state budget.

His budget message contained four realistic proposals — four points of view the General Assembly could take.

The first is to freeze taxing where it is now, in which case the General Assembly would balance the budget by slashing all expenditures to the bone. The fact is that Ohio has been running behind on tax revenue since 1947 and hiding this from its taxpayers, by living off surpluses piled up during the war years. But now the surplus is gone.

But does the General Assembly intend to retrench?

The second choice given the Assembly in the governor's budget message is to turn over to local government all future responsibility for the $40 out of every $100 that the state collects and distributes for schools, subsidies, highways, streets and so forth. This would leave the state treasury relatively unencumbered. It also would leave the General Assembly unencumbered.

But would the General Assembly like to be unencumbered?

The third choice is to retrench everywhere else and let the state highway program run on without any cutback and without any new tax revenue to underwrite its cost. This would run the state into a financial hole, with serious effects on its credit. The Assembly would not like that, either.

The fourth choice, which Gov. DiSalle recommends, is to give a little and take a little on budget requests, then balance the total with enough new taxation to make ends meet. This would mean increases in both spending and taxing.

It is not government as such that is causing the state to need more money but the money it collects and spends for public education, for the care of the blind, the aged, the mentally ill and people who break the law. Government takes only about 14 per cent of the money that is paid into the general fund. All the rest is for the direct benefit of Ohio residents.

Gov. DiSalle has made a realistic approach to the budgeting problem that nags every governor. He has asked his fellow Ohioans to understand what makes the budget the way it is; to understand that taxation is the price they are paying for all the things their legislators have agreed to do.

Therefore, every critic of taxing must prove his good faith by becoming a critic of some form of spending that he wants to abolish. Otherwise, he is talking through his financial hat.

Ohio, unlike the United States, cannot fudge the financial issue by going endlessly into debt to conceal from voters that politicians are buying favor with public money they are not courageous enough to ask for in the form of taxes. It must balance as it goes, or retrench.

The Russians Are Not Nervous

Once more Americans are wondering if international tension is reaching the crackling point of a shooting war.

There is no logical reason for any country to go to war over the issue of Berlin's future. Here was a city that had no foreseeable future at the end of World War II when it was being pounded into rubble.

But logic has nothing to do with war, which is the triumph of hysteria over reason. The question now is whether the men who constitute the one-party hierarchy of the Soviet Union are capable of throwing logic to the winds and precipitating war.

If they did this, the United States would not be fighting for Berlin, or for West Germany. It would be fighting for the preservation of its beliefs against the procedures of a government that had shown itself incapable of co-existence.

It would be fighting for the survival of its way of doing things against the threat of a way of doing things it could not accept.

THESE THINGS are known to Americans. They are known to the citizens of the nations which in all likelihood would line up with the United States in war. This is one of the ways of doing things that cannot be sacrificed to the absolutism of Russia — this broad dissemination of information and unlimited discussion.

It puts the Western Allies at a disadvantage in the war of nerves that has been brought to a fresh climax by Premier Khrushchev's curt treatment of Prime Minister Macmillan during the latter's visit to the Soviet Union.

In the West every possibility of international disaster is being aired. All the cards are being laid on the table. The dreadful potentiality of a war that might be started by the iron whim of the Kremlin is being examined in cold fear. If there are any sword-rattlers in the West, they are taking pains not to reveal how they feel about the possibility of war that has been brought into focus by the latest failure in a series of unsuccessful parleys with Russia.

The West is frightened and solemn. It is nervous. All the whistling in the dark it has been doing on its way past the graveyard suddenly seems foolish. The Soviet Union has delivered an ultimatum about Berlin. It has set a deadline — May 27. It is behaving suspiciously like a government that has decided to introduce violence into a tense international situation.

BUT THROUGHOUT all that has happened and all that may happen, it must be borne in mind that the Russians will not be nervous. They will not know what is happening to them as May 27 approaches. There will be no information, no discussion. There will be no questions, no answers.

The absolutists who control their lives and even their thoughts will tell them nothing. They will be as ignorant as the hordes of Communists Chinese who ran screaming up to the defense lines in Korea. They will be told only what is calculated to make them hysterical and full of hate.

It is going to be a test of the composure of free people, perhaps the most severe test since Hitler's massed hordes were massed to pounce on Europe in 1940 at the climax of a war of nerves. That war of nerves was too much for the French, but it did not shatter the morale of the English.

This war of nerves may claim victims too. That is perhaps the main reason it is being waged — not to precipitate a shooting war

Young Citizens

The Girl Scout movement continues to grow each year in Salem and this probably can be attributed to the capable leadership offered by the women who direct the program and inspire the girls 7 to 17 in a program which teaches them good citizenship.

Teaching the girl scouts to respect the American flag, to serve their communities, and to keep themselves ready and alert for all emergencies is the principle business of Girl Scouting. In Salem the scouting program has grown to the point where 822 girls are enrolled in 47 troops, which includes 22 Brownies, 18 intermediate and seven senior groups. A total of 305 adults is actively engaged in the program and 21 associate members, belong to the Girl Scout Council.

The Girl Scouts next week will commemorate the 47th anniversary of the national organization, and today is an appropriate time to commend all of the local girls for being such dependable young citizens.

Once Upon a Time, a Goose Laid a Golden Egg

'Bad' and 'Good' Arabs

By RALPH MCGILL

Mr. Herbert Deighton, once upon a time an astute Oxford don and now a skilled and successful counselor on Middle Eastern and African affairs for various British interests, presently is in America. Our paths crossed.

He knows President Nasser of Egypt and the whole Arab world very well indeed. He is fluent in Arabic and his specialty at Oxford was the history of the Middle East. It grieves him and concerns him that the Western nations have done themselves, and their cause, great harm by what seems to him a fundamental error.

It is that of judging all Arabs as a child addict of western TV shows classifies the characters as "the bad ones" and "the good ones." We have been looking upon Arab leaders as "good" or "bad," depending upon how faithfully they agreed with us.

For example, President Nasser, for all his faults, is the best man to have come along in Egypt. That is to say, says Mr. Deighton, Nasser had from the start the loyal following of the people and wanted to create a stable Egypt. Such an Egypt would be of great benefit to the world.

Yet we acted abruptly, and unwisely, he thinks, in canceling out the Aswan Dam, knowing it would be disastrous to our relationship with Egypt. Moreover, he thinks, we should have seen that the manner of our cancellation made for more Arab unity for Nasser. Britain, in his opinion, was even more ill-advised to have gone along with our decision.

NOW THE RUSSIANS have agreed to provide the aid. If they do, then perhaps irreparable harm will have been done.

Nasser, from the viewpoint of Egyptian aspirations, was not, he concludes, "bad." Yet, we so publicly classified him.

On the other hand, we supported Iraq which was headed by a weak king and a strong, ruthless and able premier, Nuri Es-said. Nuri was tagged a "good" Arab. Yet, he was a "bad" Arab insofar as Iraq was concerned. The wrath of the long suppressed people was loosed on him when the revolt succeeded.

Counselor Deighton notes that Premier Nuri's harsh suppression of all political activity in Iraq provided the Communist with their present strength. They were used to working underground and were skilled in infiltration and subversion. When the old rulers were gone the only real supply of political experience was in the Communist party. This was also true in Europe during the Nazi occupation. It accounts for the great surge of Communist strength in the immediate postwar years in Italy, France and Greece.

Therefore, while we fondly regarded all those Arab leaders who had subscribed to the Eisenhower doctrine as "good," we could not have failed to know that most of them did not have popular support. The lesson of Lebanon's "good" Arab is offered by Dr.

Deighton as another case in point.

IF NASSER FAILS his successor will hardly be to the right of the present position, but to the left. The young army leaders and intellectuals in all the Arabic-speaking, Moslem nations are weary of the old power alliances. They are eager, and determined, to make their own mistakes. Western diplomacy, he thinks, should seek to do all it can to lessen the severity of those mistakes.

Nasser's popularity remains high because the attack on Suez and the Aswan Dam controversy portrayed him as a person who would stand against great Western power-pressure. This year he has been under attack by the Russians. At the meeting of the Communist party congress in Moscow, Nikita Khrushchev went out of his way to make thinly veiled criticism of Nasser.

Despite recent reports of renewed Soviet - Egyptian friendship, it may be the Soviets will abruptly break their promise to build the Aswan Dam, which is so necessary to the Egyptian future. If so, we may have another opportunity. President Nasser has great confidence in Eugene Black, president of the World Bank. He could work out a new policy for us if the chance comes again.

If Dr. Deighton has a general thesis it is that there must be a comprehensive understanding of what is going on. And what does go on may not be oversimplified into a charade of "good ones and bad ones." The Eisenhower Doctrine for the Middle East never got off the ground. We would now like to forget about it.

The process of transition is swift and uncertain. Concern over the growing strength of Communism in Iraq now has Nasser worried along with Britain and the United States.

It will be an ironic twist of history if this fear, which caused the West to break with him, should now become the catalyst to bring them together in understanding and cooperation.

Soviet Union View

By JAMES MARLOW

Khrushchev Seeks Meeting With Ike

WASHINGTON (AP) — There is a simpler view than some of the guesses on why Premier Nikita Khrushchev gave British Prime Minister Macmillan a rude, fast brushoff when he went to Moscow to discuss the Berlin crisis.

The guesses range from thinking Khrushchev was making one more effort to intimidate the West to saying he was impatient with Macmillan for not bringing solid solutions with him to Moscow.

The simpler view is that the realistic Khrushchev thinks strictly in terms of power and who has the muscle. He has shown he understands what power means by getting rid of all his rivals in the U.S.S.R. until now he stands supreme.

In this world the two most powerful forces are the Soviet Union and the United States. They dominate. Compared with them every other nation is a second-rate force, according to this view.

The two leaders of the two dominant powers are Khrushchev and President Eisenhower. Therefore, any talks except directly between Khrushchev and Eisenhower are a gumbating waste of time.

If this view is accepted, then that would explain why Khrushchev treated Macmillan like a messenger boy, dismissed the idea of a foreign ministers meeting as time-wasting, and aimed at what he has sought more than a year: a summit meeting with Eisenhower.

His meeting with Macmillan was in a way a kind of junior summit. He showed what he thought of Macmillan's importance by the way he treated the British prime minister, who was his guest.

Khrushchev has given the United States, Britain and France until May 27 to get their troops out of Berlin. If they don't, he has threatened to let the East German Communists block any supplies the Big Three attempt to send their Berlin troops.

Since this situation could lead to war, the Western Big Three proposed to seek a peaceful solution by talking. But their idea of who talks and Khrushchev's idea are not the same.

The Big Three—following what has become a kind of reflex action any time trouble arises—suggested that their three foreign ministers get together with the Soviet foreign minister to talk things over.

Such foreign ministers meetings in the past, as Khrushchev later emphasized, can be time-consuming. They can be and often have been, unproductive.

Before the Soviets could give an official answer to the proposal about foreign ministers, Macmillan decided to go to Moscow, see Khrushchev, and try to lay the groundwork for peaceful solutions.

But, since the Big Three were not yet willing to go beyond the idea of a ministers' meeting, Macmillan couldn't carry with him to Moscow any proposals that went further than that.

Khrushchev—during a recess in his conversations with Macmillan—made a farce of the talks by delivering, in a manner that seemed completely contemptuous of the prime minister, a speech on the very subject they were discussing: Berlin.

He warned that Western efforts to push military supplies through to West Berlin after May 27 could mean war; he mocked the idea of a foreign ministers meeting; and said only the heads of government have sufficient power to negotiate on the German problem.

Then Sunday, just before Macmillan set out for home, British sources said he was coming back determined to urge the United States and France into a summit meeting with Khrushchev, Macmillan long has favored such a meeting, but the official Allied stand has been for adequate advance preparation.

So Khrushchev moved one step closer to what he has wanted all along — a meeting with Eisenhower.

Albie Booth and Bert Metzger, of Yale and Notre Dame, respectively, were powerful examples for hundreds of "little men" who had to play football. Booth, who has just died, an Metzger weighed less than 150 pounds, yet both were first-teamers par excellence — Booth as a back, Metzger as a lineman.

I have been hearing about nepotism since I was a child and once quit a job because a fellow employee pointed out that my father had made it possible for me to get it. The only solution to the problem in public employment, where nepotism is intolerable, is to outlaw it all the way down to nephews, which is what it means—favoritism toward nephews.

The nine-year-old car I drive back and forth to work is almost exactly the same as the "lightweight" cars supposedly being readied for sale in 1960 by the Big Three. Odd thing about it is that I never thought of it as a "lightweight" car, though I've noticed it is shorter than modern models. Apparently, Detroit figures if it goes back 10 years it will have given the public a bargain.

Once Over

In the recent toothache incident Khrushchev may have fired the "oult!" heard 'round the world. It is possible his toothache could become the most historic in world history, constituting a definite warning of war and devastation of civilization.

In years to come it may possibly be said, "News: do so many people depend so much on one tooth."

It could be, of course, that Khrushy really had a ban toothache when he took himself out of a scheduled trip with Macmillan. Anybody knows such trouble can make any man frascible and unsociable.

Nothing would make the world more relieved than an official statement from Khrush's dentist. "The premier had a toothache and I mean positively. I advised him not to fight it. After all, why should Khrushchev suffer for England?"

DENTIST who treated Khrushchev must have been highly shaky. When a doctor tells the Soviet leader, "This isn't going to hurt you," he had better be right. Dental office scene:

Dentist: What tooth is it?

Khrush: That's for you to find out.

Dentist: It would speed it up if you told me.

Khrush: You will speed it up or else. I remind you that Russia invented dentistry. I'm not so sure it didn't invent teeth.

Dentist: Open wider.

Khrush: That's what Macmillan kept demanding in our policy talks.

Dentist: I could fill it.

Khrush: I warn you that you have weapons

Matter of Fact

The first lighthouses were low towers on which were placed baskets full of flaming wood or charcoal. Such a lighthouse stood on Cape Sigeum at the Hellespont in the 7th century B. C. The most famous ancient lighthouse was the marble Pharos at Alexandria, Egypt, named after the island on which it stood. It was considered one of the seven wonders of the world.

The first great library of the world, at Alexandria, was founded by Ptolemy I, who ruled Egypt from 323 to 285 B.C. The library is thought to have had 700,000 volumes written on rolls of papyrus. Manuscripts were collected from all parts of the world and scholars came from all parts to study at Alexandria. In 47 B.C., when Julius Caesar took Alexandria, part of the library was burned but it was later restored.

Man Asks Protection From Teen-Age Sons
OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — Last week jeweler Richard Paulisch asked juvenile authorities to protect him against three of his teenage sons. He accused them of throwing rocks at him.
 The boys, 13, 15 and 16, were taken to Juvenile Hall. The next day Friday, his wife Wilma, 46, packed her bags and left home with their three other children 6, 11 and 13.
 Now she has filed for a divorce, charging her husband with extreme cruelty and asking custody of the six children. Paulisch described his three elder sons as "incorrigible hoodlums."

East Liverpool Youth Is Granted Probation

LISBON — A 17-year-old East Liverpool youth who formerly lived in Niles was placed on probation at a hearing Friday before Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin.

He had admitted to 11 burglaries in Columbiana, Hancock, Beaver, and Jefferson Counties.

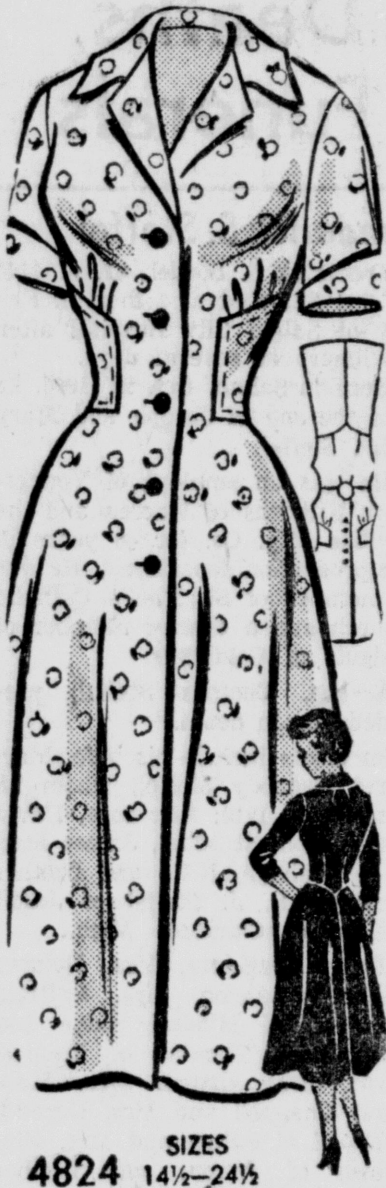

The youth and Gary Risher, 19, of East Liverpool were picked up in an auto Feb. 12, on Rt. 30, south of Lisbon, by sheriff's deputies who found the two armed with a gun and a knife.

The county burglaries in which the youth was implicated were: Hillberry's Restaurant on Rt. 30, south of Lisbon, Jan. 21, in which $78 cash and some cigars were taken.

Midway Diner in East Liverpool, Jan. 9, and McLaughlin's Service Station in East Liverpool, Jan. 22, in which over $100 in cash and food were taken.

The youth will be under the supervision of Probation Officer Richard Rose, Judge Tobin said. Risher was bound over to the April Grand Jury.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Day	Book	Chapter	Verses
Sunday	Mark	6	13-16
Monday	John	17	1-26
Tuesday	Acts	12	1-17
Wednesday	James	5	15-16
Thursday	Acts	6	1-8
Friday	Luke	11	1-13
Saturday	Deuteronomy	30	11-14

WHO ARE THEY?

Who are these children?

Probably, you'll never know their names. The countries from which they come encircle the globe. They speak many languages. But each night, before they go to bed, they all say their prayers.

Prayer is the greatest common denominator. You can go to church in Japan or Chicago and, regardless of the language being spoken, you will find that you feel equally in communion with God.

On World Day of Prayer, join your friends and neighbors in church. Let your prayers mingle with those of other people in churches everywhere. Remember that throughout the centuries, prayer has proven itself the greatest of forces. Let it do so again!

Utility Rate Formula Eyed By Governor

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. Michael V. DiSalle listened to arguments for and against a change in the utility rate formula Friday, and concluded:

"I realize that the municipalities are the underdogs. But I don't think we can swing the balance to the point of hurting the possibility of risk capital.

"There is a point where reasonable people can agree and I think that it can be reached."

About 40 city and utility company officials met with the governor as well as Utility Commission members and a spokesman for the Communication Workers Union.

DiSalle said he called the meeting to clarify his thinking on proposals sponsored by his party in the Democratic-controlled Legislature to change the rate - making formula.

Utility spokesmen said a change would be disruptive and city officials said it would be helpful.

Robert J. White, former Cincinnati utilities director representing that city, Dayton and Mansfield, agreed that utilities were entitled to a fair return to enable them to attract necessary capital, but he said no other state is tied to a single standard in setting rates such as Ohio's formula.

Hands Be Untied
"Our proposal is that the hands of the Public Utilities Commission be untied and permitted to regulate with an adequate rate base law," he said. "When utilities are able to hold a gun at the back of cities, there is no effective utility rate regulation in Ohio. The utilities make their own rates."

The present formula, called reconstruction cost new (RCN), is based on the cost of replacing an existing utility company plant at current prices, after deducting an allowance for obsolescence depreciation.

White said "nobody today knows precisely what is meant by inventory; it gets down to nuts and bolts."

Walter S. Sparling of Cleveland, president of Ohio Bell Telephone Co., said he was speaking for Ohio utility firms in urging no change in the RCN formula.

"Most important," he said, "is that after 46 years of operation we end up with the finest utility service at near the lowest cost in the country. The Ohio rate law has given us the financial strength to do the right thing at the right time at the right prices."

"The RCN law has operated in the best interests of the public. A change would not be in the public interest. In the long run it would result in higher rates and poorer service as in other states."

"Why go back to the laws of other states when they are moving in our direction?"

Harry M. Miller, president of the Columbus & Southern Ohio Electric Co., used what he called "bare bone facts" in showing that the rate of return for Ohio companies was less than in other states. He said a rate base change would "reflect upon the character of our securities and that would result in a higher rate of return being required." He said it would curtail long-range planning.

Everett H. Krueger Jr. of Cleveland, commission chairman, and Ralph A. Winter of Lodi, both Republicans, defended the RCN formula and operations of the commission. The third member, Edward J. Kenealy, Cleveland Democrat, termed the formula heavily weighted in favor of the utilities.

"RCN results in higher rates," he said. "Removal will result in lower rates and reasonable returns to the companies."

Blonde 'Beauty' Robs Bank In Las Vegas

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — A bold, teen-age beauty, wrestled off a bus in the middle of the desert, has been charged with robbing a Las Vegas bank of $1,761.

The FBI said Ida Belle Ingram, 19, blonde and belligerent, is the youngest bank robber they've had to deal with. Certainly, she's the prettiest.

The girl, a former bank teller in Washington, D.C., drew a trail of admiring glances as she strode into a downtown Las Vegas bank Friday. So when teller Mary Herring, 21, announced moments later that she had been robbed, police had numerous descriptions to go by.

"A beautiful champagne blonde, really a knockout," was the way Miss Herring described the girl who had handed her a note demanding $8,000 and told the teller she was covered by a gun.

"A gorgeous girl," said nightclub singer Shirley Scott, in the bank at the time.

"White, American female, champagne blonde, 5 feet 6, extremely good looking," said the police broadcast.

Alert detectives found that Miss Ingram had taken a cab to the bank, had it wait for her and then sped in the cab to the bus depot. The cabbie remembered clearly, because she was so pretty. And for the same reason, a ticket seller remembered she took a bus to Reno.

The bus was 50 miles out along the lonely desert road to Reno when Dept. Sheriff Clark Olson spotted it, flagged it down, and stepped aboard. He went up and down the aisle looking for "an extremely pretty girl."

When he came to Miss Ingram, he didn't say a word. He took one look and slapped handcuffs on her.

The girl shrieked, swore and battled the deputy all the way as he dragged her out of the bus and put her in his patrol car. Olson opened her purse and said he found the $1,761, with only $2.20 in addition.

She refused to answer questions. But the FBI said papers in her purse revealed she was from Roanoke, Va.

She was arraigned on a charge of bank robbery and held in lieu of $10,000 bail.

Second Paper Is Prepared For Columbus

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The newspaper famine in Columbus will be partially relieved today with the publication of the second new daily to be formed since a pressmen's strike crippled the three regular newspapers.

The Columbus Newspaper Guild plans today to put out some 25,000 copies of its strike-born newspaper, the Daily News, a 16-page tabloid which will sell for 10 cents.

Another new daily may not last much longer if the guild paper is a success. The News - Bulletin made its first appearance Thursday, but the editor-publisher said only about 7,000 of more than 10,000 copies printed were sold. He blamed the lag on bad weather. The tabloid edition had eight pages.

The News-Bulletin had a reduced press run of only 7,500 Friday after the private printing shop which put it out ran into difficulty with its presses. Editor-publisher Doral Chenoweth, a suburban reporter for the struck Columbus Citizen, estimated that only 4,000 copies were sold. He again blamed bad weather.

Chenoweth said the News-Bulletin will not publish today or Sunday, and that publication Monday depends on the success of the guild paper. He indicated that the News-Bulletin will not try to compete with the guild daily.

The guild paper, published by Columbus Daily News, Inc., will be staffed by guild newsmen of the Columbus Citizen. The city's other two regular newspapers, the Columbus Dispatch and Ohio State Journal, have non - guild news staffs.

The afternoon Citizen and Dispatch, and the morning Journal, have not published for 10 days. The Columbus Web Pressmen's Union, Local 15, struck the three dailies the night of Feb. 25.

Contract negotiations between the pressmen and publishers resumed Thursday after being broken off more than a week. Friday's negotiations, in the Federal Mediation Services offices, broke up after 5½ hours with a "no progress" report from mediator E. L. Phillips. The two sides are scheduled to meet again today.

Eugene Grove, another furloughed Citizen reporter, will be editor of the guild newspaper. He said today's edition will serve as a weekend edition since the Daily News will not publish Sunday.

He said the News will resume publication Monday morning on a six-day week basis. It will be printed at a private printing establishment, like the News-Bulletin but will have editorial offices in a downtown hotel.

The planned 25,000 circulation of the Daily News will be small compared with the combined daily circulation (about 370,000) of the city's three regular newspapers. The News will be sold at regular newsstands throughout the city.

The striking pressmen reported are seeking a 12 per cent wage increase over present weekly scales of $118.18 for day work and $123.18 for nights. The publishers have offered a 9 per cent package increase in a two - year contract. The pressmen initially sought a one-year contract.

A major stumbling block against strike settlement is the pressmen's demand for extra premium pay for Saturday night work.

LISBON COUNCIL TO MEET
LISBON — An ordinance to raise the street commissioner's salary to $4,680 is expected to be passed at Village Council's meeting Monday night, according to Mayor John Todd. The street commissioner's salary now is $4,200.

Repairing of village streets also is expected to be discussed. The streets were severely damaged by the weather this winter.

AMVETS TO MEET
The Amvets will hold a business meeting Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. in the post home.

THE REMARKABLE MR. PENNYPACKER — Clifton Webb and Dorothy McGuire star in the film, "The Remarkable Mr. Pennypacker" which will be shown at the State Theater Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. The story concerns a successful porkpacker of the 1890's who has two families in different cities.

Senate Crime Investigations Takes Toll in Nation's 'Hoods'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Several of the nation's top hoodlums have run into black days since the Justice Department started a big push against the underworld a year ago.

More are expected to topple as federal authorities continue a steady whittling out of cases against underworld characters.

Justice Department officials said today Atty. Gen. William P. Rogers' program for an unrelenting long-term attack on the hoodlum element is moving along just about as planned.

Dulles' Illness Makes Ike Be 'More Active'

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower and Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev are locked in a strange kind of contest—each trying to convince the other his side is united on the issue of Berlin's future.

The guild paper, published by Columbus Daily News, Inc., will be staffed by guild newsmen of the Columbus Citizen. The city's other two regular newspapers, the Columbus Dispatch and Ohio State Journal, have non - guild news staffs.

AMVETS TO MEET
The Amvets will hold a business meeting Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. in the post home.

Rogers announced the program a year ago as a systematic "non-sensational" drive to combat organized crime with a highly organized series of prosecutions aimed primarily at getting "the 100 top hoodlums" behind bars or out of the country.

The names on the select list have never been published, but as a starter Rogers ordered a pooling of information on these characters from the files of the FBI, the immigration service, and the Treasury units handling counterfeiting, narcotics, alcohol and income tax cases.

The Council of State Governments and the National Assn. of State Attorneys General pledged cooperation with respect to information available to them.

Recalled From Practice
Milton Wessel, 35, former assistant U.S. attorney in New York City, was recalled from private law practice to act as an information coordinator with the title of special assistant to the attorney general.

One of its tasks was to check out the activities of some 60 men who showed up for a so-called "crime convention" at Apalachin, N.Y., Nov. 14, 1957.

In the year since the Wessel task force started its highly secret work — and in cooperation with state and local officials: Vito Genovese, who has been described as top man in the New York underworld — and who attended the Apalachin meeting, was indicted on a narcotics charge and is now on trial in New York.

Russell Bufalino of New York, another Apalachin delegate, has been ordered deported and deportation proceedings have been started against some others who went to Apalachin.

Joe Profaci, also a delegate, and who has been identified with Brooklyn rackets, has been denaturalized — usually a preliminary step toward deportation action.

Gambler Frank Costello, already in prison for income tax evasion, has had his acquired American citizenship revoked.

Paul (The Waiter) Ricca, one-time right hand man for Al Capone, was convicted of income tax evasion in Chicago and received a three-year prison sentence.

Peter Licavoli, reputed leader of the Detroit Purple Gang, was also convicted on the same charge and got 2½ years.

Fugitive Shot By Sheriff in Wildwood, Ga.

SOUTH PITTSBURG, Tenn. (AP)—A Tennessee Highway Patrol dispatcher in nearby Chattanooga said today a man he identified as Alabama desperado William E. Smothers was shot and wounded by the sheriff of Dade County, Ga., near Wildwood, Ga. today.

The dispatcher said Smothers was still alive and that a Georgia ambulance, believed from Dade County, was taking Smothers to a hospital. The location of the hospital was not determined immediately.

The search for the crafty, cigar-smoking desperado, who held four persons hostage in his flight from Alabama imprisonment, had centered in this southeastern Tennessee area.

Possemen, mobilized from Tennessee, Georgia and Alabama, said their task was made doubly hard because the fugitive, William E. Smothers, 38, was thoroughly familiar with this cave-pocked tri-state area and has numerous friends in the section.

Officers believed Smothers was trying to reach Chattanooga, about 35 miles east of here, where he has relatives. Chattanooga police reported they had the relatives' homes under surveillance.

Smothers made his bid for freedom Thursday while being taken by auto to Birmingham from Kilby Prison at Montgomery, Ala., where he was serving robbery sentences totaling 160 years. He was to stand trial in Birmingham on charges of possessing a pistol after conviction of a larceny.

Unlocking his handcuffs and chains with a homemade key, Smothers gained control over Alabama patrolman Otto Dees and the driver of the car, Ted Easley, a prison trusty serving 25 years for murder.

About noon Thursday, armed with Dees' revolver, Smothers added Mr. and Mrs. Noel Keith to his group of hostages. He kidnapped the couple at their home near Birmingham and took their car.

Following a cautious drive to Flat Rock, Ala., about 25 miles south of here, the hostages were released unharmed. It was the Keiths' auto that later was found near South Pittsburg.

bor activities. The rain produced local flooding in western Massachusetts and Connecticut.

Highway maintenance officials in Iowa said some communities in the northeastern part of the state would be snowbound for several days in the wake of drifted 20-inch snowfalls. Intercity bus travel over the state was almost nonexistent after the worst snowstorm in 10 years.

Unestimated thousands of cars were abandoned on Iowa highways and city streets, and the situation was little better in Wisconsin where the snow measured up to 22 inches at La Crosse.

In Michigan, about 30 persons were stranded south of Marquette as the roughest blizzard of the winter carrying 12-inch snowfalls blocked U.S. Route 41. All of them crowded into a nearby house for the night. Nearly three dozen cars were tied up along another section of U.S. 41 near Harvey and Ne-gaunee.

Light rain dampened the Pacific Northwest and considerable cloudiness blanketed the plateau region. Skies were clear over most of the rest of the country outside the Great Lakes and the Northeast.

Warming was in prospect from the Plains eastward into the Mississippi Valley and colder weather followed the snow into the Northeast.

opening up of revenue sources to them."

Also on the state superintendent's list to be taken up with the board Monday:

Reports from each of the division directors within the state education department, covering the past six months' activities. Directors will be on hand to answer board members questions, Holt said.

A resolution—recommended by Holt—to create a new city school district containing all the territory of the Ravenna Local District of Portage County and Ravenna City District. The idea is to avoid duplication of effort, provide a broad-based curriculum and head-off annexation problems.

A report on hearings being conducted in connection with revoking charters of 20 high schools which failed to meet minimum state standards.

A review of a state plan for strengthening instruction in mathematics, science and modern foreign languages in relation to the National Defense Education Act. Holt recommends adoption.

Consideration of territorial transfers involving Warren Local District to the city of Warren (Holt agrees) and a portion of Mahoning Local District in Mahoning County to Salem City District in Columbiana County (which Holt thinks should be disapproved.)

Requests for charters from Brooklyn City District, North Canton Exempted Village District and Finney Local District, all of which Holt favors.

Deaths, Funerals

Frederick S. Steffel

Frederick S. Steffel, 62, of 1148 E. 3rd St., died at 1:30 p.m. Friday at Salem City Hospital after an illness of several days.

Born in Salem, Oct. 25, 1896, he was the son of Joseph and Mary Blind Steffel.

He was an employee of Youngstown Kitchens of Warren and the Mullins Mfg. Co. for 46 years in the production department. He was a member of St. Paul's Catholic Church and a charter member of Knights of Columbus.

A son, Thomas Steffel, preceded him in death.

Survivors include his wife, Margaret Kennedy Steffel, whom he married in 1919; four sons, David and Joseph, at home, James Steffel of Raleigh, N.C., and Brother Terrance S. J. Steffel of Jesuit College of Clarkson, Mich..

Solemn High Mass will be sung at 9:30 a.m. Monday at St. Paul's Catholic Church by the Rev. Father J. R. Gaffney.

Burial will be in Grandview Cemetery.

Friends may call at Stark Memorial Sunday afternoon and evening.

Miss Hazel Murray

Funeral service for Miss Hazel Faye Murray, 30, of RD 3, Depot Road, who was struck and killed by an auto on the Depot Road near her home Thursday evening, will be on Monday at 2 p.m. at the Maple Funeral Home in Kensington.

The Rev. Gene Marvin, pastor of the Phillips Christian Church will officiate.

Burial will be in Woodside Cemetery near Winona.

Friends may call at the funeral home Sunday evening.

Harry O. Deemer

LISBON — Harry O. Deemer, 68, of Lisbon RD 2 died Friday morning at his home where he lived alone. His body was found by his son, Harry R. Deemer of RD 5, Lisbon at about noon.

Born Oct. 15, 1890 in Elizabeth, Pa., Mr. Deemer lived in the Lisbon area for the last seven years coming here from Pittsburgh. His wife, Hilda Deemer, died July 3, 1957.

He was a member of the Lisbon Presbyterian Church and the Masonic Order of Pittsburgh. He was a retired construction estimator, member of the Society of Military Engineers and the Registered Professional Engineers of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Deemer is survived by three sons, Harry, Raymond H. Deemer of Dayton and William W. Deemer of Concord, Calif.; and nine grandchildren.

Services will be held Monday at 3 p.m. at the Joseph Nied Funeral Home at Swissvale, Pa., in charge of the Rev. Paul T. Gerrard. Burial will be in Homewood Cemetery.

Presumably, the four Communist nations will discuss going ahead with a separate peace treaty for East Germany should the West refuse to bow to terms laid down by the Kremlin for a pact covering all Germany.

Khrushchev has clearly linked the Berlin crisis with conclusion of a German peace treaty. Still hanging over as a threat to peace is his warning that the Soviet Union would turn over to the East Germans control of Allied routes to West Berlin.

Salem-Chaney to Meet For Berth In Regionals

Quakers Defeat Wilson 83-61 With Big 3rd Quarter Rally; Hunter Rims 22 In 21st Win

By GORDON ARNDT

It will be Salem against Youngstown Chaney in the district finals tonight at 8:15 in the South High field house.

The Quakers moved into the championship fray last night before 1,924 paid fans by rolling over Woodrow Wilson 83-61.

Chaney had beaten Canfield 77-48 on Thursday night.

The game with Wilson went nip and tuck for about six minutes in the opening frame when Woody Deitch tossed in a follow-up shot to put the Red and Black ahead to stay at 11-10.

The losers came close in the second frame at 29-25 for their last serious threat of the game but then the Quakers got rolling to take a 38-29 margin with 2:21 left in the half. At the intermission the Quakers led 45-35.

Dave Hunter was high man for the victors with 22 while Deitch had 16, Dan Krichbaum 14 and Clyde Marks 13.

For Wilson, Rich Hovanec tossed in 22 and Nick Milasnovich 17.

Wilson kept the game pretty close in the second quarter by hitting 9 of 17 shots. Salem threw a press at the Youngstowners but Wilson used a long pass down court to an open mate to break it. Salem combated this in the second half by dropping two men back on defense.

Lou Slaby picked up his fourth personal foul at the 7:27 mark in the third period and was removed for Jim Lehigh. Slaby did not re-enter the contest. Deitch also got his fourth personal at the 4:48 mark in the same frame. He left for good even with four fouls on him at the 2:45 pole in favor of Jim Solmen.

THE QUAKERS' three seniors were all hampered with the flu this week but recovered in time for the game.

Wilson really cooled off in the third quarter. They managed only seven points making 2 of 15 shots while the Quakers had their fast break moving with authority to rack up 24 points and grab a very commanding 60-42 margin after three periods.

Salem missed several easy shots in the opening period while Wilson used screens to set up attempts. The winners first FG was by Slaby at the 5:18 mark. The game was fast throughout with the losers firing wild shots at the hoop time after time. When they rang the bell the Wilsonites stayed in the game. However, their loose game fell by the wayside in the third frame when they fell apart offensively while Salem got hotter than a firecracker.

When Solmen went in for Deitch at the 2:45 mark in the third quarter Salem led 60-40. In the remaining minutes the playing of Marks and Hunter stood out for the Quakers. Marks did a bang up job on the boards hauling in 16 rebounds (Slaby had 11) while Hunter was all over the place on offense either scoring or setting up his mates with sharp passes.

Midway in the final quarter Salem led 79-50 when Coach John Cabas began subbing freely.

FRED HARSHMAN replaced Hunter while Carl Dunn and Rick Theiss filled in for Krichbaum and Ed Yates. Yates had started the fourth frame in Marks' position.

With two and one-half minutes remaining Tim Burchfield replaced Lehwald while Salem led 81-55. The Salem reserves looked good in spots but lagged in other factors. They and the Wilson "bench" both had trouble converting their fouls.

Salem made 32 of 74 shots for 43.5 per cent and Wilson hit on 21 of 62 shots for 34 per cent. From the foul stripe the winners connected on 19 of 31 and Wilson 19 of 34.

The turning factors in the game were Salem's vaulted fast break in the third quarter, Wilson's collapse here and after better press by the Quakers.

Wilson got around the press in the first half but didn't in the second half. At one stretch in the third quarter the Quakers outscored Wilson 13-3 to move the game from a close one into the rout it was. After leading by 10 at the half they were 20 in front with 2:45 left in the third quarter.

Tonight Salem and Chaney will be battling for a berth in the Kent regional. There will be only 16 teams left in the running after tonight.

Salem is now 21-1 on the season with a 18-game winning streak while Chaney is also 21-1 with a 15-game skien going.

A capacity crowd of over 3,000 is expected to watch the contest which pits the top two teams in northeastern Ohio against each other.

Starters for Chaney will be 6-7 Ron Sabo, 6-3 Dave Baker, 6-0 Marty Pernie, 5-10 Clark Avery and 5-9 Ernest Neal.

Lehigh started for Deitch last night but Salem's top scorer is expected to start tonight. He is 6-1 while the other regulars, Slaby and Marks are both 6-4. Krichbaum 5-9 and Hunter 5-10.

Tonight's officials will be Mike Maro and Chuck Varner, the same pair that handled last night's contest.

Salem Radio Station WSOM-FM will broadcast the game tonight beginning with warmup time at 8. Eddie Lane will give the play-by-play with Ted Taylor filling in with the color. The station will broadcast every Salem game throughout the remainder of the tournament.

QUAKERS BLAST WILSON — Salem's Lou Slaby, playing only one half last night, still managed 11 rebounds in his club's 83-61 win over Youngstown Woodrow Wilson in the district semi-finals. The other Quaker seen hidden is Clyde Marks who hauled in 16 rebounds. They scored a total of 22 points.

The Wilson man is Nick Milasnovich who hooped 17. In the bottom picture Dan Krichbaum drives in for a layup on one of Salem's fast break tactics which broke the game wide open in the third quarter. Krichbaum rimmed 14 tallies. No. 34 for Salem is Jim Solmen. The Wilsonite is Lou Marinelli.

Tonight at 8:15 in the South field house Salem meets Youngstown Chaney for the right to the Kent regional.

Paul Arizin Scores 38 in Warriors' Win

By The Associated Press
Paul Arizin's point production is going up and up in the National Basketball Assn.

The veteran Philadelphia Warrior notched 38 points Friday night against the Syracuse Nationals to bring his season total to 1,827, a personal all-time high.

Philadelphia won the game, 118-114.

Arizin's best previous mark was 1,817 which he compiled two years ago when he led the league in scoring.

Arizin had 18 field goals and two foul shots in leading the Warriors to their victory. Togo Palazzi was high man for the losers with 37 points.

In the only other game, the Minneapolis Lakers clinched second place in the Western division, 99-98 over the Detroit Pistons. The defeat also eliminated the Pistons in the battle for second place in the division.

Larry Fout was top scorer for the winners with 23 points.

It is not definitely known, but mosses, lichens and liverworts may have been the first plants that were able to live on the land.

Middies Edge Princeton 44-41 To Enter Cincinnati Regional

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Three Class A teams suffered their first losses of the season Friday night as district tournament cut a wide swath through Ohio's high school basketball talent.

Belted for the first time were Geneva Spencer, the state's third-ranked club in the final Associated Press poll; Xenia Woodrow Wilson, fifth in the ratings, and Old Washington, which boasted the longest streak of 26 in a row.

Defending champion Northwestern of Wayne County ousted Geneva Spencer by 50-43, running its record to 2-2. Xenia Woodrow Wilson was victimized 59-57 by Camden Shawnee after winning 18, and Old Washington dropped a 68-64 overtime tilt to Maysville (18-6).

The losers dropped Geneva Spencer and Woodrow Wilson from the fight, but Old Washington gets another chance. Old Washington meets Conotton Valley, loser to Midvale at Dover, in a runoff game today at Granville to decide which goes on to the Canton regional.

Midvale, Maysville, New Boston, Racine, Lynnwood - Jacksontown and Pickerington won their way into regional play Friday night in Class A, while Middletown's eternal threats and Cincinnati St. Xavier made it in Class AA.

The Middies led Princeton 4-2 at the quarter and 16-15 at the half before snatching a 44-41 victory for their 15th district championship in the last 17 years. They have gone on to win the state title seven of the last 15 seasons.

Ten Class A and 14 Class A district finals are on tap tonight, with all winners advancing to Regional tournaments next week. The "Sweet 16" in each division will battle it out for four state tourney berths here March 20-21.

With three teams suffering their first losses Friday night, the unsullied array in Class A was slashed to four. Only three are unbeaten among the larger schools — Cleveland East Tech's defending champions (20), Elyria (22) and Akron Central (18).

Two of the unbeaten Class A teams, Racine (25) and New Boston (22), advanced to the Athens tourney from which only one can emerge. Other Class A unbeaten are Convoyn-Union (25) and Salem local (24). The latter faces a toughie in Sidney Holy Angels (24) 1) tonight at Springfield.

Akron St. Mary, winner of the Class A title in 1929, lost its bid for the Class A crown Friday night as it was eliminated 58-46 by Kent Roosevelt.

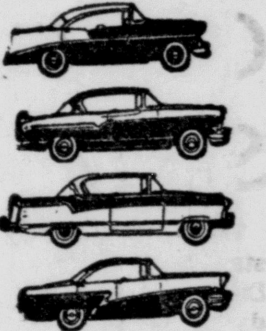

With the Class A field of 412 slashed to 30, six of the top ten in the final Associated Press poll are still on hand. Five of the top ten in Class A are still around, although the field of 601 has been cut to 26.

TOUGH COOKIE — Washington Manager Cookie Lavagetto makes no mystery of what he wants Harold Griggs, a pitcher, to do during practice sessions at the Senators' Orlando, Fla., training site.

'58 EDSEL
Pacer—2 Dr. Hardtop
Without a doubt this is one of the most striking cars on the road today. Luxury at its best. It's finished in bittersweet and metallic gray and is fully equipped. Previously driven by a Hine Motor Co. official. Automatic shift, radio, clear plastic seat covers, whitewalls, etc.

'58 EDSEL
Corsair—4 Dr. Hardtop
Another luxury car with deluxe appointments. You'll find all the equipment expected of a car in its category and you'll admire the beautiful 2-tone aqua and jet black finish. It, too, includes whitewalls.

'57 MERCURY
Montclair Convertible
If you're in the market for something along the "sporty" line this one will catch your eye. You'll like the all plush leather interior and the color arrangement inside. Has mechanical and all the other equipment. Finished in brown and tan.

'57 PONTIAC
Silver Streak Convertible
If you want a "go-getter" here's the answer; this baby includes that famous fuel injection motor. It's a sharpie from all angles. All white finish offset with a red side panel, whitewalls and extra deluxe chrome wheel discs.

'56 CADILLAC
Fleetwood—4 Dr. Sedan
One of America's best cars, being fully equipped with the usual Cadillac equipment. Dark blue finish, whitewall tires. For a good, solid quality car this one sets the pace.

'55 FORD
Custom—Four Door
Equipped with Fordomatic, etc. You'll appreciate the nice, matching seat covers. Finished in powder blue and ivory. An excellent family car.

'55 FORD
Two Door Club Sedan
This is the popular Fairlane model and is fully equipped with Fordomatic, etc. Beautifully finished in a rich two-tone tan.

'55 BUICK
Super Riviera Hardtop
A beautiful car with good roadability and one of the better riding cars. Equipped with dynamo, etc. An excellent color combination of green and ivory.

'54 FORD
Custom—Four Door
Includes Fordomatic, seat covers, etc. A good solid car you'll enjoy. Finished in aqua.

'54 PONTIAC
Catalina Hardtop
A nice one, boys! Very "showy" beige finish and has whitewalls. Hydramatic, etc. Beautiful leather interior.

City All-Star Game Set Monday Evening

The city league basketball all-star game between the Monday Division All-Stars and the Wednesday Division All-Stars will be played Monday night in the Memorial Building beginning at 8:45.

The 10-man squads were determined on a vote conducted by the respective coaches and league officials.

The contest will be staged in 10-minute quarters.

The Monday Stars, to be coached by Gordon Arndt, are comprised of Bob Lutsch and Ed Bozich of Herron Transfer, Jim Weizenecker of Millville Friends, Lee Barnes and Claire Weingart of Goshen Grange, Ron Wyss and Jerry Ippoliti of Fireside Inn and Dean Nicholson, Bob Adams and George Ramsey of Mark's Landing.

Duck DeJane will tutor the Wednesday team that is made up of Bob Stallsmith of Rifle's Plumbing, Bill Davidson of Millers Service, Gene Kitzmiller, Marion Kitzmiller and Phil Wenner of Burton Ford, Bruce Feicht and Ray Hiner of Bennetts' Greenhouse, John Mandish of Speakers Market and Chuck Greiner and Dick Beall of the Farmers Bank.

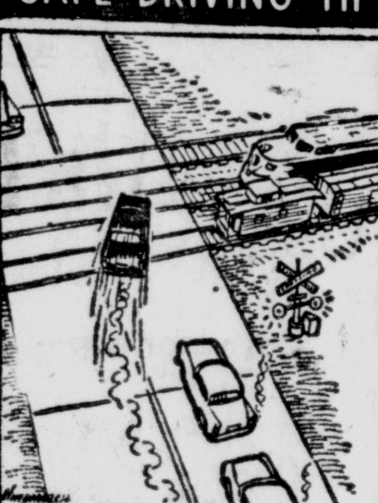

Each coach is permitted to pick up two additional players.

The game should be a high-scoring, free-wheeling affair since all 20 men this season were noted for their scoring ability.

DeJane said he plans to start the Kitzmiller brothers, Feicht, Mandish and Greiner while Arndt said he would go with Bozich, Barnes, Ippoliti, Nicholson and Ramsey at the start.

The game will be preceded by a volleyball exhibition at 8.

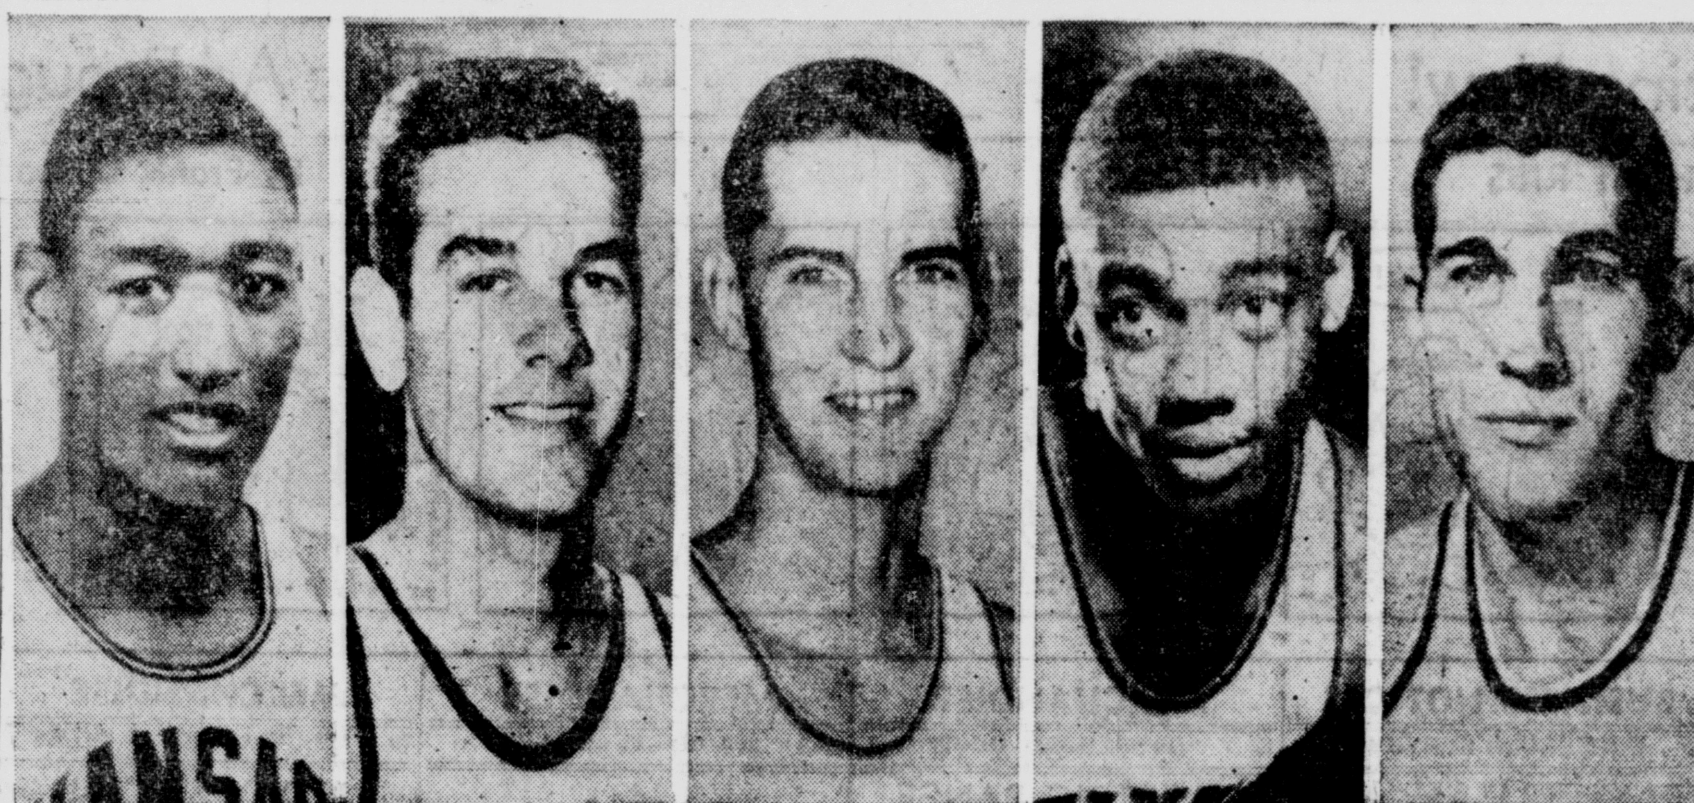

SAFE DRIVING TIP

Grade crossings are particularly dangerous kind of highway intersection. Many grade crossing accidents are the result of carelessness, inattention, and excessive speed. In the illustration the motorist has started across a multiple track crossing only seconds after a train has passed. He has forgotten about the other track completely, and a collision is unavoidable. The Chicago Motor Club advises that in the interest of saving their own lives, drivers should: Watch for and obey all grade crossing signs and other warnings; approach crossings at reduced speeds; look both ways before crossing; and, under adverse driving conditions, stop completely to make sure the crossing is clear.

ALL-AMERICA BASKETBALL TEAM — Here's the 1959 All-America basketball team picked for the Associated Press by votes of more than 300 sports writers and sportscasters. It includes the "Big O," Oscar Robertson of Cincinnati; Jerry West of West Virginia, Bob Boozer of Kansas State, Bailey Howell of Mississippi and Johnny Cox of Kentucky.

23-team NCAA lineup and two will be settled today in a pair of playoffs. One this afternoon matched Miami of Ohio and Bowling Green at Dayton for the Mid-American Conference title. Tonight, Dartmouth and Princeton play off their Ivy League tie at New Haven, Conn., with the winner advancing to Tuesday's New York tripleheader against West Virginia, champion of the Southern Conference.

Cincinnati needed a victory over Bradley in the afternoon national TV, NBC, game for the Missouri Valley NCAA berth. A Bradley loss would make the Bears the 12th and last team in the NIT opening next Thursday in New York.

It'll take until Monday night, however, to unscramble the fourth NCAA vacancy, the one belonging to the Border Conference. The race ended in a three-way tie. Tonight Texas Western plays New Mexico State at El Paso with the winner facing Arizona State U. for the NCAA nomination Monday night.

Big Ten Approves Rose Bowl Extension
MADISON, Wis. (AP)—The Big Ten has cleared its decks for continuing in the Rose Bowl football game.

By a majority vote believed to be 6-4 or 7-3 the conference, which has won 12 of the last 13 Pasadena New Year's Day classics, flashed the green light for continuation beyond the 1960 game.

The exploratory ballot was taken by faculty representatives and athletic directors in their annual spring meeting Friday. The matter now must go before each Big Ten faculty council for certification and then be voted on officially in the conference's meetings at the University of Michigan, May 21-23.

The vote of sentiment makes way for the Association of Western Universities, successor to the Pacific Coast Conference and the Tournament of Roses Committee, to issue a formal Rose Bowl invitation. It is believed this has not yet done because the Big Ten first had to clear the air on how it stood.

"We presume that the AWU and Tournament of Roses stand ready to negotiate a new Rose Bowl contract," said a Big Ten spokesman.

Don Bragg of Philadelphia, who hasn't been beaten all winter and set a world indoor mark of 15-9½ along the way, will meet Olympic champion Bob Gutowski in the pole vault.

"But," he said through an interpreter, "I've had a good week of training and maybe I'll make a race of it this time. I must admit, though, I still haven't figured out a way to beat Ron on boards."

'Most Valuable' Ernie Banks To Lead Chicago Cubs in '59

SCOTTSDALE, Ariz. (AP)—I'm not predicting anything for the 1959 season but I wouldn't be surprised if the Chicago Cubs were among the first four teams. Especially if injuries don't plague our young but promising pitching staff.

We almost made it last year. We finished tied for fifth. What hurt us when we were only 2½ games out of the lead on July 18 was an arm injury to Moe Drabowsky. He didn't pitch again and we slid out of pennant contention into the second division.

Our pitching and reserve strength were our weakest points last year. We have two kids coming up, Bob Anderson and John Buzhardt, who could make the difference along with the added experience Dick Drott, Drabowsky and Glen Hobbie gained last year. Also we will have Taylor Phillips and Dave Hillman. All are young.

Then there are Bill Henry and Don Elston back for relief. Henry and Elston were probably as good a pair of relief pitchers as there were in the league last year.

I feel our infield will be stronger if only because we will have Alvin Dark all year. Ernie Banks was the best ball player in our league last year. I doubt if he's reached his peak yet.

Dark, who will be our regular third baseman, looks like he has a lot of baseball left in him and he proved he could play third base. Behind him is John Goryl, in his second year. And there is veteran Bobby Adams in reserve.

We have Dale Long and Jim Marshall for first base. Tony Taylor, who came a long way last year, will be at second. He'll be backed by Jerry Kindall, a promising bonus boy of three years ago. Our outfield has good power.

Walt Moryn, in left, hit 26 home runs. Bobby Thomson, the center fielder, had 21, and Lee Walls, in right, socked 24. These fellows will be backed by Chick King and Lou Jackson, a couple of promising rookies.

Our catching is good with Cal Neeman and Sammy Taylor dividing the regular duties and Morris Thacker to back them up.

The addition of Earl Averill, who played eight positions for San Diego last year, should help our bench although we gave up pitcher Johnny Briggs and outfielder Jim Bolger to Cleveland to get him.

I think the race will be similar to last season, but I think it will stay tight all the way up to the end with Milwaukee the team to beat.

Boston U., Utah, California, North Carolina in NCAA Fold

By The Associated Press
Add North Carolina, Utah, California, Boston University and this time officially—Denver to the post-season major college basketball tournament fields.

North Carolina, Utah, California and Boston U. wrapped up NCAA Eastern Regional at New Haven—Cal and Boston without lifting a finger. At the same time, Denver's position for the National Invitation Tournament was clarified by a loss to Brigham Young that eliminated the Pioneers from the Skyline Conference race.

North Carolina moves into the NCA Eastern Regional at New York next Tuesday against Navy after whipping Duke 74-71 Friday night to reach the final of the Atlantic Coast Conference's title tournament. Frank McGuire's Tar Heels, 1957 National Collegiate champs, meet North Carolina State in tonight's ACC final at Raleigh but with State on NCAA probation, the result has no bearing on the NCAA berth. State won its semifinal over Virginia 66-63.

Utah, qualifying for the NCAA Far West regional at San Francisco March 13, nailed its fourth Skyline championship with an 85-73 victory over Wyoming. The Utes' victory plus Denver's 72-67 loss to Brigham Young cleared the situation into which Denver fell with its acceptance of an NIT bid Thursday. That touched off a verbal tug of war in which the Skyline said it would hold Denver to its obligation to play in the NCA tourney in case it caught Utah.

Boston U. joined the NCAA field as an at-large entry and will play Connecticut's Yankee Conference champions at New York in a first round game Tuesday. California has its tournament berth a day ahead of schedule—thanks to its Los Angeles branch. UCLA knocked runner-up Washington out of the Pacific Coast Conference scrambling, 56-55 and gave Cal its third straight title. The Bears will play Utah in the Far West regional.

The big tournament fields now are nearly completed—and can be all but filled within the next 24 hours.

TALKS RESUME
CLEVELAND (AP)—Contract talks resumed today between Ohio BBell Telephone Co. and the Communications Workers of America. Negotiators were reported near agreement when they adjourned Thursday after a 20-hour negotiating session. The 17,000 employees represented by CWA have been working without a contract since midnight last Saturday.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

CARD OF THANKS

IN MEMORY of our loving son who passed away 3 years ago today—The fairest lilies are the first to fall. The sweetest first to fade. The fondest, dearest, best of all. At peaceful rest is laid. As some sweet blossom drops and

When blighted by the frost, He faded from before our eyes. And all too soon was laid to rest. But God's garden free from pain, Where grow His fairest flowers, We know that we shall meet again. This fair bloom of ours. Sadly missed by mother, father, brother, grandparents, aunts and uncles.

Questions and Answers

Q - How did the expression "get in Dutch" come to mean a great deal of trouble?
A - The expression started when Britain and Holland were battling for control of trade on the seas. The English tried to discredit everything Dutch by propaganda methods - Thus everything Dutch was considered bad.

BOY, 9, KILLED AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Summit County deputies believe a game of make believe killed nine-year-old Jim Wilson Friday night. The boy, a clothesline knotted around his neck, was found hanging from a rafter in the basement of his Co. ley Township home. His father, David, discovered the body. Deputies said the boy, alone in the basement, probably was playing the part of a hanged man when he tumbled off a chair and strangled.

Plan Set to Boost Science In Schools

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The State Board of Education will be asked Monday to approve a plan for strengthening instruction in science, mathematics and foreign languages in public schools.

Dr. E. Holt, state superintendent, and his staff have drawn up the plan aimed at obtaining nearly $800,000 in federal aid for this purpose.

Principally, the plan provides for the acquisition of laboratories and equipment for which $743,000 is available. This must be matched by state or local funds or both.

The plan also would add 11 educational specialists this year who would assist in training local school authorities in selection and use of equipment. Unmatched aid of $52,800 is available for this part of the program.

These supervisors would visit schools encouraging them to add new and advanced courses in science, math and languages and inform teachers of scholarships and grants for advanced study to improve instruction.

Deaths according to age listings were: Under one day, 15 deaths; one day through nine years, 14; 10 to 49 years, 21; 50-59 years, 31; 60-69 years, 58; 70-79 years, 77; 80-89 years, 54; and 90-99 years, 13. No deaths of persons 100 years of age or over were recorded during 1950.

Principle causes of deaths and the totals for each cause were: Heart ailments, 84; cancer, 45; cerebral hemorrhage, 35; arteriosclerosis, 30; pneumonia, 23; accidents, 16; premature births, 13; uremia, 8; and stillbirths, 19.

Cases of communicable diseases reported throughout the year were: Measles, 415; mumps, 102; chickenpox 187; scarlet fever, 15; whooping cough, two; polio, one; infectious hepatitis, one; and rheumatic fever, six.
